MIDWEST
HOUSE PLANS

The floor plan shows a large rectangular area divided into three main sections. On the left is a white rectangular area labeled "GARAGE SLAB". To its right is a large, light-brown rectangular area labeled "UNEXCAVATED". A staircase, represented by a series of horizontal lines, is located between the garage slab and the unexcavated area. The staircase has an arrow pointing upwards and is labeled "UP". The entire plan is enclosed in a thick black border. There are also some dashed lines and small squares indicating structural details or openings.
